Redvers Drama Club performs play after eight year hiatus

BY ANGELA ULRICH

After an eight-year hiatus, the Redvers Adult Drama Club made a return to the stage with the Wild West production "The Day Black Bart Balderdash and Dangerous Dan McGrew Went to Dueling at Miss Kitty's Golden Nugget Saloon."

Set against the rugged backdrop of the Gold Rush era, the play transports audiences to a bustling saloon filled with a colorful cast of characters whose antics kept the crowd laughing and wondering what on earth could happen next.

Well over 450 people were in attendance over the two evening performances and cast and crew were thrilled with the support. "The script was written by John Donald O'Shea and sourced from Big Dog Publishing of Rapid City, South Dakota," says Director Gwen Arthur. "The play was initially chosen based on the amount of volunteer actors we had, and the length was just the right amount to start with. We got to work in September with practices twice a week, then every night closer to show time."

The production depended on a large team of dedicated volunteers, from sound and lights, stage development, advertising, ticket sales, costumes and make up and so much more.

Proceeds of the event went to the Redvers Fire and Rescue Department for a new frontline firetruck and the Carlyle and District Food Bank.

Moosomin Spookarama Committee

Spookarama is a Community Event on Halloween evening created for McNaughton High School students and is organized by a committee of volunteers, with generous support from the community. Spookarama provides an entire evening of activity – a dance with prize draws, snacks and drinks – for the youth in Moosomin, giving them something positive and fun to do.

We would like to recognize the contributions of so many businesses and individuals in the community. Without their help, Spookarama would not be the success that it is!

THANK YOU!

to all of the volunteer chaperones, committee members, community members, McNaughton High School Student Representative Council, Moosomin RCMP and all who helped make this event a success!

It was an honor to attend the Commemoration of the Ukrainian Holodomor at the Legislature Tuesday.

With Joanne, Morgan, and Heather Kerr after they received a philanthropy award for their work on Miracle Treat Day.

What an incredible day at the Legislature Tuesday as the Riders brought the Grey Cup to the Leg! It was great to see the crowd and talk to some of the players.

With Summer and Mikka Heide from Moosomin at the Ronald McDonald House Saskatchewan House Party on Wednesday.

Another amazing week representing you

DQ receives philanthropy award

Moosomin Dairy Queen was recognized with an award on National Philanthropy Day November 14 in Regina for selling 7,880 blizzards on Miracle Treat Day, raising more than $41,000 for the Jim Pattison Children's Hospital. Jada Kook of the Jim Pattison Children's Hospital Foundation nominated them for the award. I was happy to volunteer to help make blizzards for Miracle Treat Day and to take the Kers on a tour of the children's hospital! Congratulations to them on a well-deserved award.

Grey Cup and celebration at the Leg

The week started with the Grey Cup in Winnipeg. I was so excited to be there in Winnipeg to watch the Riders bring the Grey Cup home to Saskatchewan!

Monday the first thing that happened in the Legislature was a member statement in which I celebrated the Rider win. And what an incredible day at the Legislature Tuesday as the Riders brought the Grey Cup to the Leg! Great to see the amazing crowd, great to talk with some of the players... Another fun day at work!

Congratulations to the Riders on an incredible win!

Holodomor commemoration

It was an honor to attend the Commemoration of the Ukrainian Holodomor at the Legislature Tuesday. It was a solemn ceremony commemorating a dark time in Ukraine's history.

Ronald McDonald House Party

What an honor to speak at the second annual Ronald McDonald House Saskatchewan House Party Wednesday night.

Summer Heide and her daughter Mikka from Moosomin were there at the House Party. Summer's family stayed at Ronald McDonald House when Mikka was in hospital in Saskatoon for surgery. To give back, Summer organized an auction fundraiser and raised $6,500.

Chris MacPherson of Wapella wanted to give back because his family spent the first few weeks of his daughter's life at Ronald McDonald House. He had a cattle sale and donated some of the proceeds to Ronald McDonald House. One heifer was bought by Levi Jamieson of Moosomin, whose family stayed at RMH in Saskatoon when he was in hospital after an ATV accident, the sale of those heifers raised $14,500.

I see the impact of Ronald McDonald House and hear about the urge to give back from lots of people, and I know that giving back makes such a difference.

I'm proud our government announced earlier this year $10 million for construction of Ronald McDonald Houses in Regina and Prince Albert and I look forward to seeing them completed.

Thursday morning I spoke in the Legislature about the amazing work Ronald McDonald House does.

Caring Hearts funding announcement

Thursday afternoon I made a funding announcement for Caring Hearts.

I learned about Caring Hearts when I spoke at an event they held in Central Park in Regina for Suicide Prevention Awareness Day.

I was impressed by what I learned that day. Caring Hearts submitted an application for funding for some of the work they do around grief counselling that no one else is doing, and I and some health ministry officials met with them in October.

And Thursday I made the announcement on behalf of Rural and Remote Health Minister Lori Carr that our government will provide annualized funding, starting in the current budget year, to Caring Hearts to support them in the work.

It was wonderful to make the announcement and hold a press conference on funding for this incredible organization that does such important work.

A busy week in the Legislature

A growing economy allows us to provide families with safe and affordable housing. Saskatchewan topped the charts in housing starts, with an increase of 50.8 per cent in the first ten months of 2025 compared to the same period last year. Housing starts are an important economic indicator because they represent real people and families who are choosing to build their futures in Saskatchewan.

With more people calling our province home, we remain committed to expanding access to primary care. Our government is pleased to introduce 19 new Nurse Practitioners (NPs) who will provide publicly funded primary care services in communities where residents need them most.

Our government has introduced the Building Schools Faster Act, new legislation designed to accelerate school construction in communities experiencing rapid growth. The legislation is expected to be passed in spring 2026. Through this, we are helping ensure students get the best start in modern learning spaces.

Supporting safe and secure communities through targeted policing initiatives is also a priority for our government. While $7.8 million is being invested in policing initiatives in Saskatoon and $6.8 million is being directed toward strengthening local police services in Regina, our government has supported police services across the province through the Municipal Police Grants Program since 1998. Today, the program funds 160 specialized police positions in nine communities provincially. These investments enhance the ability of our communities to stay ahead of safety concerns and challenges. This work supports our effort in creating safe places to live, work and raise a family.

Work to expand programs that prevent homelessness and enhance support services is also underway through the Provincial Approach to Homelessness (PATH). We are investing up to an additional $20 million over three years. Since PATH was announced in 2023, we have invested more than $98 million in homelessness services.

These initiatives reflect our government's commitment to improving quality of life across Saskatchewan. By maintaining a strong economy that enables strategic investments in health care, education, public safety and social supports, we are laying the foundation for stronger communities today and for generations to come.

Harris, Ouellette key to Riders' Cup victory

Now, just like the rabid fan base that lives and dies with the Saskatchewan Roughriders, Canadian Football League fans across the land are green — with envy.

The Riders, who last won a Grey Cup 12 years ago when they blasted Hamilton Tiger-Cats 45-23 in front of their boisterous fans in Regina, finally broke their championship drought Nov. 16 by beating the Montreal Alouettes 25-17.

To make it even sweeter for Gang Green, the Riders displayed their championship chops on the turf at Princess Auto Stadium in Winnipeg, scene of so many battles against their arch rivals, the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

While the Bomber faithful were still drowning their sorrows after a semi-final loss to Montreal, the Riders — boosted by an enormous showing of support from Saskatchewan fans who made the relatively short trek down the Trans-Canada Highway — upended Montreal with an offensive combination that worked throughout the 2025 season: The running of A.J. Ouellette (83 yards, one TD) and the accurate (85 per cent) arm of the game's MVP, quarterback Trevor Harris.

The Roughriders, who, going into the game, had a record of 4-13 in their Grey Cup appearances, know all about Grey Cup droughts. They won their first title in 1966 and then waited 23 years for the next one, the famous 43-40 win over Hamilton on Dave Ridgway's late field goal. Another 18 years would pass before the Riders again drank champagne, in 2007, when they beat the Blue Bombers 23-19. The Riders were champs again only six years later, when they beat Hamilton in Regina, but the past 12 years have been dry, despite seven winning seasons. In three of those years, the Riders lost in the West final to Winnipeg, making this year's victory in the Manitoba capital so much more meaningful.

Ouellette, an Ohio native who was never drafted, joined the Riders in 2024 as a free agent after four seasons with Toronto Argonauts. His final year in Toronto was his best, with 1,009 rushing yards and an all-star selection. But that paled in comparison to his 2025 season in Saskatchewan. He rushed for 1,222 yards to finish second in the CFL behind only Dedrick Mills of Calgary. He also caught 45 passes and finished the season with nine touchdowns. "I've always kind of played with a chip on my shoulder," says Ouellette. "Always been the small guy in the huddle."

Ouellette said he lacked confidence early in his pro career. He was cut from two NFL teams, Cleveland and New Orleans, but started building belief in himself when he joined the Argonauts. He's certainly no stranger to the Grey Cup game, having scored two touchdowns in the Argos' 24-23 victory over the Bombers in 2022. It proved that he belonged in the league, said Ouellette.

And where was that 2022 game when Ouellette's two TDs powered the Argos to victory? At Mosaic Stadium in Regina, of all places. Rider Nation may not have been cheering loudly for Ouellette that day, but they were sure full-throated in Winnipeg this year when he helped bring the Grey Cup back to Regina.

• Comedy guy Brad Dickson of Omaha: "Today I began my new online Spanish course. I have a few weeks to learn the language so I can understand the lyrics during the Super Bowl halftime show."

• Vancouver comedy guy Torben Rolfson: "The Dodgers held their World Series parade in Toronto because half their team was afraid of getting ICE'd."

• Rolfson again: "Ernie Clement admitted he bought his glove on e-Bay, as opposed to Bo Bichette, who got his

• Janice Hough of leftcoastsportsbabe.com: "After winning the Cy Young, Pittsburgh Pirates winner Paul Skenes is denying media reports he wants to be traded to the NY Yankees. So he wants to stay with Pirates long enough to sign a billion dollar different deal with the Dodgers?"

• Greg Cote of the Miami Herald: "Tom Brady cloned his dog: Is the Super Bowl legend-turned-Raiders part owner and mediocre broadcaster quirky, eccentric or just plain weird?"

• Another Rolfson offering: "Tom Brady cloned his dog? What's next? Gisele?"

• Cote again: "Let us acknowledge and then ignore the NBA Cup, the league's 'in-season tournament' that somehow has survived to its third year despite being thoroughly unnecessary."

• Columnist Norman Chad, on the Washington-Miami NFL game in Spain: "Madrid asked for NFL excitement, and instead they're getting two 3-7 teams trying to remember what competent football looks like. Truly a gift from America."

• Jack Finarelli on his sportscurmudgeon.com site, on the weather in Winnipeg, on Grey Cup Sunday: "The weather forecast for kickoff time in Winnipeg calls for the temperature to be 28 F and dropping. Anyone who can watch that game with a cold watermelon rind on his head for three hours deserves my support."

• Steve Simmons of the Toronto Sun: "Super-agent Scott Boras is singing the Blue Jays praises rather publicly. Boras has about a billion dollars in free agents available this winter. He wants some of that Blue Jays money."

• Another one from Simmons: "(Alexander Mogilny) did his Hall of Fame speech on video from Russia. He looked like he was taken hostage and asking for his release."

Remembrance Day Service 2025 was held at the Wawota Town Hall on Tuesday November 11. The Wawota Legion Branch #113 were honored to have so many community members attending and so many youth attending and laying wreaths.

Ray Bortolotto, the Wawota United Church minister, delivered the address. As he had visited Hiroshima in July, he related the bombing there in 1945 to help end the war.

I recall years ago in the 1940s, my parents and my younger brother, Grant, and I attended the service in a temporary Legion clubroom behind the old post office. Those were the days when Remembrance Day was a national holiday.

My older brother Wayne and my sister Nola marched down from the school to attend the service. My father Denton Brehaut and a couple of my uncles on his side of the family and my mother Grace MacKay's three brothers Claire, Cyril and Ivan were all in the Air Force in World War II. Over the years I have attended the service and if unable to do so I watch the service broadcasted from Ottawa or Regina. As I am still in the hospital, that is what I did this year.

Harold and Jane Laich of Last Mountain have a new granddaughter. She was born on October 6 and has been named Emberly Heba. Her parents are Brooks Laich and Katrin Davíðsdóttir.

Congratulations to Phil Weatherald on receiving the Lions Melvin Jones award—an award for dedicated humanitarian service recommended by his fellow Lions members to Lions International Foundation. He has been a member of the Wawota Lions Club for 52 years!

I collected $360 for UNICEF which was mailed in last week with my private donation. Thank you to all who purchased posters and Carey Lamoureux for the photocopying.

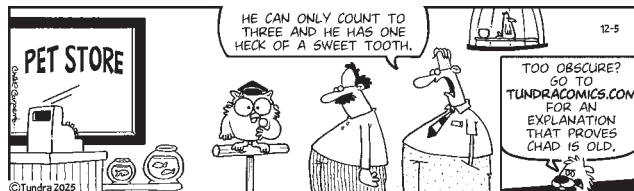

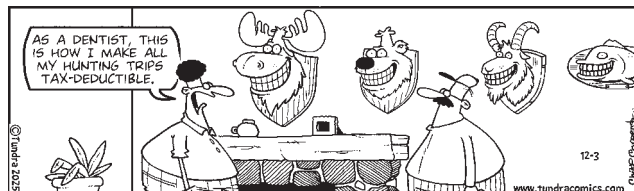

Congratulations on my grandson Jack Lamoureux on his 19th birthday on November 14. Family and friends celebrated at the Arlington Hotel.

Kipling Town Council

Town looking at locations for new splash park

BY NICOLE TAYLOR
LOCAL JOURNALISM INITIATIVE REPORTER

The town of Kipling is looking into what the town's water and sewer costs would be for putting a new splash park in.

The Kipling Lions are fundraising for a splash park in Kipling, and the town is looking at three different locations in town and assessing the costs for water and sewer in each of those locations.

Sewer line replacement

At their meeting on November 10, the town passed a motion to cover half of the cost of a sewer line that runs from the town main to a house. As per the town policy, the, the town pays half the cost. The line will cost the town $4,500

Arena open for the season

The Kipling arena has officially opened for the season. This year the arena will see use from the skating club, the U11 AAA Badgers, three rec hockey teams, and from Kipling Minor Hockey.

Town hoping to pave part of airport runway in 2026

CAO Brenna Ackerman reported that she has submitted the Community Airport Partnership Program grant for the airport. The town is hoping to get part of the pavement on the runway redone. The Community Airport Partnership is a provincial program that provides funding for regional, community-owned airports in Saskatchewan.

CN culvert replacement

The town would like to replace some culverts under the train tracks on the north side of town near McMillan Motor Products. The town would like to install larger culverts in that location. The current culverts are old and in need of replacement due to age, and also a bit too small, with water backing up at times. CAO Brenna Ackerman said she had filled out a CN culvert application form which she will be submitting to CN.

Westman RCMP Report

BY AMANDA ALLARD

58 calls for service

From November 9 to 15 the Westman RCMP received a total of 58 calls for service. Some of these calls for service include 18 traffic offences, two Mental Health Act calls, eight assaults, three suspicious persons, one abandoned vehicle, five mischief calls, two well-being checks, one person reported missing, and four uttering threats, three disturbing the peace, and one identity fraud file.

Assault and failing to comply with undertaking conditions

On November 9 the Westman RCMP responded to a 911 call for disturbing the peace in the Settlement of Sioux Valley Dakota Nation. RCMP attended the address and located the suspect outside of the residence. The 32-year-old-male was on conditions from a previous court order to not attend the address or have contact with the resident. He was placed under arrest for failing to comply with his undertaking conditions. RCMP took statements from the complainant and witnesses. It was determined that the suspect had assaulted one of the residents. The 32-year-old-male was transported to the Virdean RCMP detachment and remanded into custody. His next court appearance will be in December for two charges of failing to comply with undertaking condition and one charge of assault.

Impaired driver drives through yard and into ditch

On November 10, the Westman RCMP responded to a 911 call in regards to a motor vehicle collision in the RM of Two Borders. RCMP attended and it was determined that a 56-year-old-female drove through a yard and into a ditch while impaired. The 56-year-old female was placed under arrest and released on an appearance notice to attend court in February for operation while impaired by alcohol of a motor vehicle and a Highway Traffic Act ticket for driving without holding a valid drivers licence which carries a fine of $298. The vehicle was impounded for thirty days.

Assault in Virdean

On November 11 the Westman RCMP responded to a 911 call for disturbing the peace in the town of Virdean. RCMP attended the address and spoke to members of the household and located the suspect in the garage. It was concluded that a 40-year-old male had assaulted his partner. He was placed under arrest and transported to the Virdean RCMP detachment. He was later released on an undertaking to appear in court in February on one charge of assault.

Fined for speeding

On November 12 during a routine traffic patrol within the RM Wallace-Woodworth, RCMP observed a vehicle travelling at a high rate of speed. Radar confirmed a speed of 123 km/hr in a 100 km/hr zone. RCMP initiated a traffic stop and the driver was issued a traffic offence notice for speeding, which carries a fine of $351.

Did you know?

You may know that Spy Hill is located on the main line of the CN Rail and we have approximately 20 trains per day passing through our town. But did you know that the standard CN track gauge is 4 ft 8.5 in (1,435 mm), which is the standard gauge used across North America and much of the world. The popular myth is that Roman chariots created the initial ruts on roads, and subsequent wagons and then eventually railroad tracks had to be built to match those ruts, which were the same width as today's standard gauge. So, this is the same gauge width as the Roman war chariot wheels.

OBITUARIES

NORMAN CARL GIBSON
AUGUST 24, 1950 –
NOVEMBER 10, 2025

Norman Carl Gibson of Brooks, Alberta, sometimes known as Barney, passed peacefully on November 10, 2025, with his wife of 50 years by his side, at the Brooks Health Centre, at the age of 75 years.

Norman was born in Moosomin, on August 24, 1950 and grew up on a farm in Wapella, Saskatchewan. He married Joanne Trenaman on November 1, 1975 in Moosomin and moved to Brooks to work at Brooks Livestock.

Sherry and Chris were born in Brooks. In 1979, they moved to Rainbow Lake and High Level, where he worked as a janitor. Tracy was born in 1981. They moved back to Brooks and Norman worked at Kinbrook Park, Bow Slope Shipping, and was self-employed as a janitor and property manager.

He enjoyed family gatherings, antique vehicles, and camping. Norman was a Flames and Brooks Bandits fan. He was a regular at Tim's and known for his love of donuts.

Norman will be remembered for his sense of humour and pranks. He was always willing to help friends, family, and strangers. Someone stuck in the snow, out he would go to help push or pull, or give a boost.
